

SENIOR COUNSEL PROTOCOL

as at June 2002

00/13

A.

The principles governing the selection and appointment of those to be designated as Senior Counsel by the President of the Bar Association are as follows:

1. The designation as Senior Counsel of certain practising advocates by the President of the Bar Association, in accordance with the following principles and under the following system, is intended to serve the public interest.
2. The designation of Senior Counsel provides a public identification of barristers whose standing and achievements justify an expectation, on the part of those who may need their services as well as on the part of the judiciary and the public, that they can provide outstanding services as advocates and advisers, to the good of the administration of justice.
3. As an accolade awarded on the basis of the opinions of those best placed to judge barristers' qualities, the designation of Senior Counsel also provides a goal for the worthy ambition of junior counsel, and should encourage them to improve and maintain their professional qualities.
4. Appointment as Senior Counsel should be restricted to practising advocates, with acknowledgement of the importance of the work performed by way of giving advice as well as appearances in courts and other tribunals.
5. The qualities required to a high degree before appointment as Senior Counsel are skill and learning, integrity and honesty, independence, diligence and experience.
 - (a) Senior Counsel must be learned in the law so as to provide sound guidance to their clients and to assist in the judicial interpretation and development of the law.
 - (b) Senior Counsel must be skilled in the presentation and testing of litigants' cases, so as to enhance the likelihood of just outcomes in adversary proceedings.
 - (c) Senior Counsel must be worthy of confidence and implicit trust by the judiciary and their colleagues at all times, so as to advance the open, fair and efficient administration of justice.
 - (d) Senior Counsel must be committed to the discharge of counsel's duty to the court, especially in cases where that duty may conflict with clients' interests.
 - (e) Senior Counsel who are in private practice must honour the cab-rank rules; namely, the duty to accept briefs to appear for which they are competent and available, regardless of any personal opinions of the parties or the causes, and subject only to exceptions related to appropriate fees and conflicting obligations.
 - (f) Senior Counsel must have the capacity and willingness to devote themselves to the vigorous advancement of their clients' interests.

- (g) Senior Counsel must have the perspective and knowledge of legal practice acquired over a considerable period.
 - (h) Senior Counsel will have demonstrated leadership in:
 - (i) developing the community and diversity of the Bar; or
 - (ii) making a significant contribution to Australian society as a barrister.*
 - (i) In order for the foregoing qualities to have been properly developed and tested, it is expected that applicants for appointment as Senior Counsel should have practised for a considerable time. During this time it is expected (without being exhaustive) that the applicants' practices will demonstrate some or all of the following: experience in arguing cases on appeal; a position of leadership in a specialist jurisdiction; experience in conducting major cases in which the other party is represented by senior counsel; considerable practice in giving advice in specialist fields of law; and experience in conducting cases with a junior.
6. The system for the designation of Senior Counsel must be administered so as to restrict appointment to those counsel whose achievement of the foregoing qualities displays and presages their ability to provide exceptional service as advocates and advisers in the administration of justice.
 7. Separately from the designation of practising barristers as Senior Counsel, the Bar Council may designate distinguished lawyers as Honorary Senior Counsel in exceptional cases.

B.

The system for the selection and appointment of those to be designated as Senior Counsel is to be conducted as follows:

1. All steps towards selection of appointees are to be conducted by a Selection Committee (the 'Selection Committee') comprising:
 - (a) The President of the New South Wales Bar Association;
 - (b) The Senior Vice President of the New South Wales Bar Association;
 - (c) Three other senior counsel (Queen's Counsel or Senior Counsel) nominated by the President, and approved by the Bar Council, not more than one of whom may be a member of that Bar Council.
2. The Bar Council is to ensure that the Selection Committee is provided with all administrative, clerical and other assistance reasonably necessary for the discharge of their responsibilities for the selection and appointment of Senior Counsel.
3. Each year, and before applications for appointment are received, the Selection Committee shall, by invitation, choose at least thirty senior counsel (Queen's Counsel or Senior Counsel), at least ten junior counsel, and at least thirty solicitors specialising and experienced in the conduct of litigation (the 'Consultation Group') for the purpose of mandatory consultation with the profession for the selection of appointees. The Consultation Group shall include at least a third of the members of the previous year's Consultation Group.

4. On or after 1 July in each year, applications may be made in writing to the President by junior counsel with full practising certificates who wish to be considered for appointment as Senior Counsel.† #
5. Applicants may submit with their applications particulars of such matters as they wish to be taken into account by the Selection Committee.
6. Applicants are to be made aware that their applications will be the subject of distribution during the selection process and it will therefore be impossible to keep confidential the fact that an application has been made.
7. No application will be considered which is received later than 31 July (or the first working day thereafter if it is not a working day), except in cases of accident or other special circumstances, and then at the discretion of the President.†
8. The Selection Committee may determine that any application which it is satisfied does not warrant further consideration, should be rejected in a preliminary selection.
9. The Selection Committee must seek comments on all applicants remaining after the preliminary selection from each member of the Consultation Group to the extent to which they are able and wish to assist.
10. The Selection Committee must seek comments on each applicant remaining after the preliminary selection from the following members of the judiciary (the 'Judicial Consultation Group'), namely
 - (a) the Chief Justice of New South Wales;
 - (b) the President of the Court of Appeal;
 - (c) the Chief Judge in each Division of the Supreme Court;
 - (d) the Chief Judge or most senior member of at least one of any other courts or tribunals of New South Wales in which the Selection Committee considers the applicant to have practised to a substantial extent;
 - (e) the Chief Judge or most senior member of at least one court or tribunal of the Commonwealth in which the Selection Committee considers the applicant to have practised to a substantial extent;
 - (f) the Chief Justice of the Federal Court of Australia;
 - (g) the Chief Justice of the Family Court of Australia;
 - (h) at least two other Judges of Appeal or Judges in any Division of the Supreme Court in which the President considers the applicant to have practised to a substantial extent; and
 - (i) at least two other Judges or members of at least one of any other courts or tribunals of the Commonwealth in which the Selection Committee considers the applicant to have practised to a substantial extent.
11. The Selection Committee may, in its discretion, consult with as many other legal practitioners or members of the judiciary or other persons as it considers may be of assistance in consideration of the applications, in addition to the Consultation Group and the Judicial Consultation Group.

12. The Selection Committee may, in its discretion, consult with any of the persons from whom comments have already been received, for the purposes of further discussion, clarification or other assistance in its consideration of the applications.
13. The Selection Committee shall, after taking into account all comments received, make its final selection of the proposed appointees.
14. The President shall inform the Chief Justice of New South Wales of the Selection Committee's final selection and seek the views of the Chief Justice on those proposed appointees.
15. The President shall not appoint any applicant included in the Selection Committee's final selection whose appointment the Chief Justice opposes.
16. The Selection Committee should use its best endeavours to ensure that the process of selection is completed so as to permit public announcements of the successful applications on or before the first Friday in October. The President shall publish the names of the successful applicants for appointment as Senior Counsel for that year in order of intended seniority.†
17. The list of successful applicants shall be available for inspection in the office of the Bar Association and published in such manner as the President directs.
18. After publication of the list of successful applicants, any unsuccessful applicant may discuss his or her application with the President.

C.

1. Subject to the approval of the Chief Justice of New South Wales, and subject to the requirements and permission of particular courts, tribunals and other jurisdictions, appointees as Senior Counsel shall wear the court dress worn by Queen's Counsel.
2. Appointees as Senior Counsel shall be entitled to describe themselves as 'Senior Counsel', to be abbreviated as 'SC'.
3. Senior Counsel, by seeking and achieving appointment, undertake to use the designation only while they remain practising barristers in private practice or retained under statute by the Crown, or during temporary appointments in a legal capacity to a court, tribunal or statutory body, or in retirement from legal practice.

Endnotes

* Paragraph (h) added by Bar Council resolution of 15 March 2001: came into effect on 1 January 2002

 Amended by Bar Council resolution of 12 July 2001.

† Amended by Bar Council resolution of 20 July 2000; amendments took effect 1 January 2001.

§ The date of effect of appointment of Senior Counsel is to be the date of the formal announcement of appointment by the President; Bar Council resolution, 21 October 1999.

Amended by Bar Council 20 June 2002

